ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

THE AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR NONDESTRUCTIVE TESTING, INC.

The undersigned, desire to form a corporation, not for profit, under Section 1702.01 et seq., Revised Code of Ohio, do hereby certify:

FIRST. The name of said corporation shall be THE AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR NONDESTRUCTIVE TESTING, INC.

SECOND. The place in Ohio where the principal office of the corporation, is to be located is Columbus, Franklin County.

THIRD. The purpose or purposes for which said corporation is formed are:

(a) To promote scientific findings in techniques of nondestructive testing and to operate exclusively for the purpose of advancing scientific engineering and technical knowledge in the field of nondestructive testing through education, research and the compilation and dissemination of information useful to the individual and beneficial to the general public, all such promotions and operations to be conducted within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, for the benefit of the general public.

(b) To cooperate with other organizations in a manner consistent with the intent and requirements of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and scientific or educational projects.

(c) To promote effective educational efforts in the area of principals and techniques relating to nondestructive testing and its use thereof through the ASNT educational council.

66316-1874

(d) To promote the development, collection and distribution of technical information relating to nondestructive testing and its use thereof through the ASNT technical counsel.

(e) To provide a manner of coordinating and supplementing the activities of its members directed to the diffusion of knowledge to the general public with respect to publications, conferences, symposia and other means of communication in the scientific and engineering fields of nondestructive testing.

(f) To provide a mechanism for planning, conducting and sponsoring educational meetings and programs and for the publication and distribution for the use of the general public and for government of digest handbooks and proceedings of such activities.

(g) To promote public understanding of the importance to the general public of nondestructive testing.

(h) To conduct such other activities as are suitable and proper in connection with the fulfillment of the foregoing purposes and which are consistent with the intent and requirements of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(i) No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth herein. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation.

(j) The corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal Tax laws.

GC816-1823

(k) The corporation shall not engage in any act of self dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal Tax laws.

(l) The corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal Tax laws.

(m) The corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal Tax laws.

(n) The corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal Tax laws.

(o) Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

(p) Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), and the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas, Franklin County, Ohio, or, by the court of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located if not Franklin County, Ohio, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
